

- 13) Today (will, would) probably be a nice day for me.
- 14) If Paula doesn't go, I (won't, wouldn't) go either.
- 15) My mum said that she (will, would) be there by 8 o' clock.

#####

❖ Should / Ought to (သင့်သည်)

Use: To say that you expect something to happen.

o Subject + should / ought to + V₁

Example: There is a traffic jam on this road, you should go by Metro. ဒီလမ်းပေါ်မှာ

ယာဉ်ကြောပိတ်ဆိုမှုဖြစ်နေတယ်။ မင်း မြေအောက်ရထားစီးသင့်တယ်။

You shouldn't drink alcohol. မင်း အရက်မသောက်သင့်ဘူး။

Should I go to the temple on Thursday? ကိုယ် ကြာသပတေးနေ့ ဘုရားကျောင်း သွားသင့်လား။

You ought to respect your elders. မင်း အကြီးတွေကို လေးစားသင့်တယ်။

You oughtn't to ride a motorbike without a helmet. မင်း ဦးထုပ်မပါဘဲ မော်တော်ဆိုင်ကယ်မစီးသင့်ဘူး။

Ought she to call the police? သူမ ရဲခေါ်သင့်လား။

Exercise: Choose the correct alternative.

- 1) They (should to, ought to) have more parks in the city centre.
- 2) We (ought to, ought to be) eat lots of fruit and vegetables every day.
- 3) You (shouldn't, don't should) do that!
- 4) We (ought, ought to) invite Cassie and Jack to dinner.
- 5) We (should, should to) leave soon.
- 6) (Should, Ought) we call the police?
- 7) (Should, Ought) we to tell Jane the news?
- 8) It (should, should be) a very good conference.
- 9) You (should, should be) enjoy the holiday.